MOHE + HULUNBUIR GRASSLAND

DAY 01 KUALA LUMPUR - HARBIN (Meals on Board / Dinner)

Assemble at Kuala Lumpur International Airport for your flight to Harbin. Then, take a leisurely stroll along the bustling Central Street, where the old buildings lining this street reflect a century of Russian cultural influence. Afterwards, visit the renowned Saint Sophia Cathedral and pass by the Harbin Grand Theatre.

Hotel: Harbin Crowne Plaza or Similar*

DAY 02 HARBIN - WUDALIANCHI (Breakfast / Lunch / Dinner)

After breakfast, proceed to Siberian Tiger Park (including park transportation). The park includes the Tiger Enclosure, Tiger Cub Garden, and a Scientific Exhibition Hall.

Hotel: Wudalianchi Hot Spring Leisure City International Hotel or Similar*

DAY 03 WUDALIANCHI - HEIHE (Breakfast / Lunch / Dinner)

After breakfast, visit Longmen Shizhai, formed by the cascading magma from the initial eruption of Longmenshan Shield Volcano 28 to 34 million years ago. Its most impressive feature is the fortress-like ramparts, hence its name. It is situated north of Yinquan Spring, opposite to South Yinquan Spring. Then, explore Heihe Mother Square and Dahehe Island.

Hotel: Heihe International Hotel or Similar*

DAY 04 HEIHE - HUMA - TAHE (Breakfast / Lunch / Dinner)

After breakfast, head to Tahe, passing through Huma Bridge. Upon arrival in Tahe, visit the Qixia Mountain Botanical Garden, which covers an area of 92,000 square meters. It is a large forest botanical garden built as an entertainment venue, combining entertainment, leisure, and scientific research.

Hotel: Tahe East Lake Garden Hotel or Similar*

DAY 05 TAHE - BEIJI VILLAGE (Breakfast / Lunch / Dinner)

After breakfast, we start our journey to Beiji Village (Arctic Village). Beiji Village is located in Mohe City, Heilongjiang Province, and is the northernmost settlement on the Chinese mainland, known as "China's Arctic". Then, visit Beiji Village (including an eco-tourism bus) to see the northernmost point of China, the Beiji Village Stele, and take photos at Shenzhou Arctic Square. Head to the most northern post office in China (*each person will receive a postcard) and view the northernmost border outpost from a distance. Then, visit the most northern house in Beiji Village, located at the very north of the village. Take a boat tour of the China-Russia Border River and view the Russian landscape from afar, with a closer look at the Russian Village of Ignashino.

Hotel: Beiji Village Suojin Hotel or Similar*

DAY 06 BEIJI VILLAGE - MOHE (Breakfast / Lunch / Dinner)

After having breakfast, visit the Arctic Sandbar Scenic Area where the ground is still primarily sandy due to the lighter black soil being washed away by floods. It's located at the northernmost point. Then, explore Songyuan Park and Xishan Park, rare urban forests in Northeast China, offering a close-to-nature experience and ideal for purifying city air.

Hotel: Mohe Peak Yuezhijue Hotel*

DAY 07 MOHE - MANGUI - GENHE (Breakfast / Lunch / Dinner)

In the morning, passing through the uninhabited areas of the Greater Khingan Range and vast forests with sparse human presence, this region boasts pristine natural landscapes. Next, visit the Aolu Guya Shilu Tribe Scenic Spot, which is China's last hunting tribe, subsisting on raising reindeer. Reindeer are a type of medium-sized deer, belonging to the Arctic Circle biome, not yet fully domesticated.

Hotel: Genhe Tegarín Theme Hotel or Similar*

DAY 08 GENHE - ERGUNA WETLAND - MANZHOULI (Breakfast / Lunch / Dinner)

After breakfast, head to the Erguna Wetland Scenic Area (including electric cart) is the most intact and largest wetland in China, known as "Asia's No.1 Wetland". Then, pass through Silver Birch Groove on the way to Aolu Guya, a settlement of the Ewenki ethnic group, which is the most remote and mysterious branch of the Ewenki residing there. Next, coach to Manzhouli, located at the junction of China, Russia, and Mongolia.

Hotel: Manchuria Triumph Hotel or Similar*

DAY 09 MANZHOULI - HULUNBUIR GRASSLAND (Breakfast / Lunch / Dinner)

After breakfast, view from the outside of the Beiji National Border First Sentry and the fifth generation national gate, and also see the Matryoshka Doll Square. Then, head to Zhongshu Jinjie Pedestrian Street, a great place for shopping and dining. After lunch, take a coach to the Hulunbuir Grassland. The beauty of the grassland here is astonishing, with the Argun River meandering through lush grass and forests, and inhabited by Buryat Mongolian herders. Upon arrival on the grassland, you will be greeted with the most solemn Mongolian welcoming ceremony, including the horse-mounting wine, worshipping at the Oboo (a sacred cairn), and receiving a Hada (a traditional ceremonial scarf) that represents the best wishes of the grassland herders. In addition, a special arrangement will be made to stay overnight in a Mongolian yurt on the grassland to experience the nomadic lifestyle.

Hotel: Mongolian Yurt with an independent bathroom or Similar*

DAY 10 HULUNBUIR GRASSLAND - HAILAR - QIQIHAR (Breakfast / Lunch / Dinner)

After breakfast, proceed to Hailar to visit Gen Gi Khan Square, which is the largest square within the Inner Mongolia Autonomous Region.

Hotel: Qiqihar Anyun Holiday Hotel or Similar*

DAY 11 QIQIHAR - HARBIN (Breakfast / Lunch / Dinner)

Today, visit the Zhalong Nature Reserve in Qiqihar, China's first national nature reserve dedicated to protect wetland ecosystems and the red-crowned crane, which is the world's largest breeding base for the species.

Hotel: Harbin Crowne Plaza or Similar*

DAY 12 HARBIN - KUALA LUMPUR (Meals on Board)
